Courtship, Love, and Marriage in Colonial America

Event Information

Saturday, February 10, 2017

1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

How did our early American counterparts fall in love? Explore some customs and traditions from eighteenth-century America. Learn about rituals from different societal standings, from the enslaved through the wealthiest Marylanders, such as Charles and Margaret Carroll, and the different roles of men and women. This program and tour of Mount Clare will cover topics such as what to look for in a partner, wedding ceremonies, and much more. Participants will also have the opportunity to practice what they learned through interactive activities. Chocolate, red wine (for adults 21+ with ID), sparkling grape juice and a light snack will be provided at the end of the program. Participants take their wine glass home! Bring your significant other or friend and celebrate the Valentine's Day season with 18th century style!
